Techmatik S.A. hires President

VANCOUVER, WA (USA) – April 27, 2016 – Rick Goode, CEO of Columbia Machine, Inc., announced today that Techmatik S.A. has appointed Mariusz Gil as President. Mr. Gil comes to Techmatik with extensive experience in construction materials industries, focused on paving stones, slabs and bagged products, working formerly as Managing Director and CEO for quick-mix, Sales & Marketing Director for Semmelrock Stein + Design (Wienerberger Group), and various sales positions at Henkel.

“We are happy to have Mariusz join Techmatik. He brings a strong level of industry experience to Techmatik.” said Dariusz Kupidura, Founder and current President of Techmatik S.A. “Techmatik is a family company, with extensive experience in the markets we target. Mariusz will complement our strong team of leaders that have built Techmatik over the years.”

“Mariusz’s experience leading companies that utilized the types of solutions we provide our customers, his high energy, and proactive, customer focused personality will fit well with our Team at Techmatik and the entire Columbia Group.” said Goode “Dariusz will be working closely with Mariusz over the coming months to bring him up to speed on the many opportunities Techmatik is currently pursuing that will help continue the significant growth our company has experienced over the last several years. Dariusz will remain as an advisor to Techmatik for the foreseeable future.”
